Historical Perspective

Tyler Hall

On December 1, 1865, when Henry Martin Tupper undertook the organization of a theology class as a mean of teaching Freedmen to read and interpret the Bible, no one envisioned the end result of this being the establishment of a university. Rapid growth in the size of this class led to the purchase of land in 1866 for the purpose of erecting a building to serve as both church and school. The school was named the "Raleigh Institute", and it functioned as such until 1870, when it was supplanted by the "Shaw Collegiate Institute". In 1875, it was incorporated as "Shaw University", which name it still bears, with the charter specifying that students were to be admitted without regard to race, creed, or sex. The school does not bear the name of its founder but of Elijah Shaw, the benefactor, who provided funds for the first building, Shaw Hall, erected in 1871.

The coeducational emphasis of the institution was noted with the erection of the Estey Seminary (1873), the first Dormitory in the United States for "Black Women". Named for its primary benefactor, Jacob Estey, the building was used as a residence hall for women until 1968 and for men from 1968 to 1970. The building is listed in the National Register of Historic Places and now serves as a cultural center for the Raleigh community.

The University graduated its first college class in 1878; its first class of medical doctors in 1886; awarded its first law degree in 1890, and its first pharmacy degree in 1893. In 1909, the Normal Department was supplanted by an Education Department, and in 1910, the Preparatory Department became a four-year academy. The professional schools were closed in 1918, but the college, theological department, and academy were continued, the latter existing until 1926. The theological department became a theological seminary in 1933, and continued as part of the University until 1976, when it became an independent institution. Since 1921, Shaw has functioned primarily as a liberal arts college, although it has retained its name as a university.

In 1931, the University elected its first Black president, Dr. William Stuart Nelson, who was president from 1931 to 1936. In 1963, the University elected its first president, who is an alumnus of the school, Dr. James E. Cheek. He remained president from December 1963 through June 1969. Dr. Talbert O. Shaw, the current President of Shaw University, has led the institution in its "Strides to Excellence" since 1987. President Shaw and Shaw University were the subject of a March 1994 cover article in The Chronicle of Higher Education, this country's most important journal on colleges and universities. The article focused on the University's recent history, remarking on the great strides it has made and the momentum it has developed.

The Shaw University Crest

The Dove, a Christian symbol, portrays the institution's commitment to a religious heritage, which started with the first class that eventually led to the establishment of this University. It was a class in theology taught by Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, December 1, 1865. The institution has remained an advocate of the Judeo-Christian faith. The Olive Branch emphasizes victory and the pursuit of excellence. The Torch carries with it the idea of the light that shows the pathway to truth. The Human Figures represent all who have come to and gone from Shaw imbued with the spirit so clearly enunciated in the life of the founder. The Stained Glass Pattern connotes the interrelation and interdependence of religion and learning proclaimed in the school motto: PRO CHRISTO ET HUMANITATE. Religion and learning conceived as a joint venture so that character can grow with knowledge has been an integral part of Shaw's tradition since its' founding in 1865.

ALMA MATER

Tune: "How Can I Leave Thee"

Hail Dear Old Shaw U, Thy Sons revere thy name, Long shall thy works be proud, Undimmed thy fame.	Noble thy hallways, Noble thy grassy plains, Nobler the hearts of men, Where thou dost reign.
Time shall thy praises sing, Glory repay thy tears, And Loud thy praises ring, Thru' all the years.	All we who love thy name, Stout hearts that shall not fail, All rise and loud proclaim, Alma Mater, Hail!

Words by Harry Payne, Class of 1935

President's Message

"Strides to Excellence: Why Not The Best?"

Dear Shawites:

The production and publication of a yearbook captures the essence of a University and permits one to view from a pictorial perspective the vibrancy of its diverse constituency. Certainly the efforts to present the life and times of Shaw University 2000 represent, without question, another example of the excellence that can be achieved when administrators, faculty, staff, and students direct their energies in achieving specified and positive goals.

This publication comes at a critical juncture in the history of our University. At this very moment, plans are underway to evaluate the entire University in preparation for reaffirmation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) in 2002. I am excited about this chance for us to see where we stand in reference to national accrediting standards. I have no doubt that we will do well. When one looks at our competitive curricula offerings, energized by a faculty of whom 65% hold terminal degrees, it is not by chance that on the annual exit evaluation done by graduating seniors in 1999, the University was given 96% rating as being highly effective in preparing them for the world of work in their related fields of study. Conversely, it is interesting to note that over 80% of entering students in 1999 rated the University as highly capable of meeting the academic challenges facing the higher education community.

The Shaw family has every right to look forward to an even brighter future. The transformation of its physical facilities from no construction and renovation in 1983 to a new $13 million residence hall and education complex in 1995 which gives our juniors and seniors the comfort level enjoyed at other institutions, and education majors a facility second to none for preparing them to teach in the "virtual" technological environment of the 21st century sends the message that this is a highly competitive and caring institution.

When one looks at the fact that Shaw University has been designated as a Level III institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools at its annual meeting in Atlanta, Georgia on December 4-8, 1999, more impetus is given to our administrative motto of "Strides to Excellence: Why Not The Best?" Graduate degrees are being offered by the Shaw University Divinity School which has received full accreditation by the American Theological Society (ATS) and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Plans are underway for the University to offer graduate degrees in Education and Business.

These are exciting times for us! A committed Board of Trustees, a highly competent faculty, a student enrollment which has increased seventy-one percent, and over 11,000 alumni scattered throughout this country and many foreign countries suggest to me, as president, that the University is healthy and is ready to continue preparing students to be high quality leaders of America. I applaud the entire Shaw University family for documented excellence.

Shaw Family—your President is still committed to "Strides to Excellence: Why Not The Best?"

ALPHA KAPPA MU HONOR SOCIETY

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society was founded at Tennessee A & I State College on November 26, 1937. Dr. George W. Gore, Jr., former Dean of Tennessee A & I, initiated a meeting to discuss the purpose of studying honorary scholastic societies. This meeting resulted in the formation of "The Federation of Honor Societies."

The Alpha Omicron Chapter of Alpha Kappa Mu was founded on the campus of Shaw University in 1940. In keeping with the ideals of academics, and social responsibilities, Alpha Kappa Mu is involved in assisting the community-at-large by conducting tutorials for school age children, and sponsoring food and clothing drives. In 1998, the Chapter implemented a campus award, the "Distinguished Teaching Award". This award is presented to a faculty member who demonstrates teaching at its finest. For all of their efforts and achievements, the Alpha Omicron Chapter was awarded the "Nation Chapter of The Year" award in March '99..

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is a fellowship of college students seeking to find and implement God's purpose for them and their world. It is a program that provides opportunities for an inward journey of spiritual growth and an outward journey of service to others. It is a non-denominational organization. The Baptist Student Union's purpose is to lead students to a commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The Baptist Student Union provides activities on the campus for worship, discussion, Bible study, and social action.

Beta Kappa Chi

Beta Kappa Chi scientific honor society was founded in 1923 by the science faculty and students of Lincoln University, Pennsylvania. During the recorded period of 1950 to 1953, chapters were established at Shaw University and other colleges. By 1992, membership had increased to 9,600 individuals in 57 active chapters. The purpose of Beta Kappa Chi is to encourage and advance scientific education through original investigation, dissemination of scientific knowledge and the stimulation of high scholarship in pure and applied science. Beta Kappa Chi helps to produce young scientists who are knowledgeable, good citizens, highly ethical and willing to network to help make opportunities for others.

Children of God

The Children of God (COG) is a campus Christian organization that focuses on providing a platform for Christian fellowship among Shaw students. A weekly activity of COG is bible study; this activity allows open dialogue among participants. The group seeks to promote unity among campus Christians and involves students in events such as; COGS Night Out or the annual Lock-In Fellowship Retreat. The theme for the 1999-2000 academic year is "The Light of the World, the Salt of the earth".

Concert Band

The concert band consist of more than 50 members. This band is composed of talented individuals. The concert band performs during several Shaw occasions including Fall Convocation, Founder's Day, Christmas, Spring concert, and Commencement. "Strides to Excellence"... Why not the Best?

Fayetteville Cape

The University delivers its educational program beyond the confines of the residential college community. Fayetteville CAPE Center is the fourth site of nine that was planned as a response to the current needs of working adults. It provides innovative educational delivery systems for many self-directed, highly motivated persons who are otherwise unable to attend institutions of higher education. The CAPE centers are designed specifically for the mature learner who has demonstrated a deep interest in an alternative form of education.

Freshman Class Officers

These dedicated students are the voices for over 500 freshmen. This year the Freshmen Officers have participated in many activities on campus. The Freshman class members volunteered to assist FEMA with the 19,000 Flood victims. They also assisted with student recruitment for the CIAA Career Expo held at the Raleigh Civic Center. These officers exemplify the Class Motto: "Don't Major in Minor Things!"

Future Black Scientists of America

The Future Black Scientists of America's purpose is to provide academic, professional, and social support for students in science through peer mentoring. They promote a professional network to help recruit, prepare, and assist young scientists. They also promote career awareness and development programs to inform, and educate about careers in science. FBSA assists young scientists to maintain good self images through participation in research activities, and fellowship with African-American scientists.

International Relations Association

The International Relations Association welcomes all students who want to learn about the world. Club activities consist of model United Nations and organization of African unity, in which students travel to Washington to represent a country in a simulation of the United Nations and the organization of African unity. Members of the International Relations Association have the opportunity to study abroad and participate in internships. The International Relations Association hold regular lunch meetings to discuss world events. They organize a United Nations week, and an African heritage week.

International Student Association

The International Student Association is the representative voice of the international student body. It is a deliberative and consultative body. It is entrusted with the authority to develop a cohesive cultural understanding between international students, the University and the greater Raleigh area. It further seeks to initiate studies and present recommendations regarding rights, needs and interests of International Students enrolled at Shaw University. All International students enrolled are encouraged to be a part of the organization.

Junior Class Officers

The Junior Class Officers are selected through election by the junior class. These officers have the duty of conducting business meetings to relay information to class members concerning upcoming events. They attend general meetings on campus to present the concerns and suggestions of the junior class members. The junior class officers are also responsible for carrying out any projects sponsored by the class; such as the Junior Class Bar-B-Que.

Jazz Ensemble

The Jazz Ensemble is composed of trumpets, trombones, saxophones, percussion sections, and a vocalist. The Ensemble is under the direction of Mr. Charles Brown and participates in coronation, the annual spring concert, and other events. The latest project of the Ensemble is its completion of a CD. The Jazz Ensemble is predicted to make huge accomplishments, and to keep Shaw University on the map.

Metropolitan Youth Together However (M.Y.T.H.)

The organization was started during the 1994-1995 school year. The founders are Taganty "Bo-Bo" Borbor, Sr. and Tanya Robinson.

The purpose of this organization is to provide support to students from Washington, DC who attend Shaw University. Its mission is to promote awareness of critical issues surrounding the Washington, DC communities and to empower the students to make a difference.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

Historically, the Shaw University chapter of the NAACP was the first college chapter and was refounded in September, 1998, under the leadership of President Bakkakar Harris. It is currently the largest college chapter in the triangle area. Over the past year, the chapter has been successful participating in NAACP national, state and local functions, such as voter registration drives, community forums, and outreach to all segments of the black community. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People continues to promote civil right issues and to build a bridge between University administration and students.

National Association of Black Accountants

The National Association of Black Accountants consists of young black women and men who are majoring in areas of business. These members strive to become successful, diligent workers, and are willing to go that extra mile to fulfill their dreams. This year's events consisted of fundraisers, scholarship programs, and tutoring for students in accounting. NABA supplies members with information about business opportunities across the country.

Pep Band

The University's PEP Band encourages students to support sports teams through music and showmanship. They attend all games and tournaments. Its yearly activities include participation in the CIAA tournament, Battle of Bands, and Homecoming. The PEP Band was named "Best PEP Band of CIAA in 1998".

Phi Beta Lambda

(Future Business Leaders of America)

The Future Business Leaders of America, was founded by Dr. Hamden L. Forkner on February 3, 1942, in Johnson City, Tennessee. The National Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda is located in Reston, Virginia. The Shaw University chapter was founded on November 11th, 1975, and was reactivated by Dr. Arlease Salley. It is operated in conjunction with the FBLA. At present, Phi Beta Lambda has 628 chapters and over 14,408 members. In the States of North Carolina, Phi Beta Lambda has 40 chapters and approximately 1,000 members.

Pre-Alumni

The mission of Shaw University's Pre-Alumni council is to train students to give back to their University after they receive their degree. The Pre-Alumni Council is under the United Negro College Fund's (UNCF) umbrella as well as National Alumni Council.

Any funds raised by the Pre-Alumni Council are donated to the United Negro College Fund (UNCF). The UNCF raises money to aid deserving students who need assistance, to enable them to continue their higher education at historically Black Colleges.

Raw Essence

Perry Norman established Raw Essence Fashion Entourage on the campus of Shaw University in 1994. Raw Essence was established as an outlet for those interested in modeling. Raw Essence does not discriminate because of hair texture, skin color, size, shape, but you have to be able to "WALK". The Fashion Entourage's mission statement is: Beauty comes in all shapes, sizes & colors.

Raw Essence participates in annual fashion shows such as the Homecoming Fashion Show, the Fashion Café, the Kid's Fashion Show, and the Collegiate Fashion Show Competition. In 1997 Raw Essence became the Collegiate Fashion Show Competition Champions. This year they will be appearing in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Fashion Show.

Army Reserve Officer Training Corp

Army Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) is a college elective that teaches the skills needed for a successful career in the armed forces. It combines classroom time with hands-on experience to teach leadership and management skills. The Reserve Officer Training Corp can be taken for up to two years.

Shaw Journal

The Shaw Journal mission is to provide information to students and other members of the community, including residents in the Raleigh area. It provides hands-on experience for students by utilizing their journalistic capabilities, and helps to develop the ethical values and professional standards of journalism.

Shaw Players

The Shaw Players are a distinctive part of Shaw University. This group consists of young, intellectual, outspoken, and talented individuals. These individuals use their time, talents, and their imagination to entertain their audiences. The Shaw Players, with the assistance of their Advisor, Juanda Holley, have performed "The Wiz", "Fences", "Harlem Holiday", and "Headshot". As these talented students work on a production, they carry the mindset of "Strides to Excellence: Why Not the Best?".

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association (SGA) plays a very important role on Shaw University's campus. They are the voice of the students. SGA works within the political structure to assemble functions and make improvements for the students. They were instrumental in getting computers installed in the library, renovations to the dining hall, and new menu selections. This years memorable homecoming celebration was coordinated for our enjoyment by the Student Government Association.

Student North Carolina Association of Educators

The Student North Carolina Association of Educators (SNCAE) purpose is to develop prospective educators' understanding of the education profession. It provides for a united student voice in matters affecting their profession. Its mission is to promote and protect human and civil rights, and to stimulate the highest ideals of professional ethics, standards, and attitudes in prospective educators.

University Choir

The University Choir, under the direction of Dr. James Abbington and Ms. Lonieta Cornwall, exemplifies pure excellence. The University Choir is a group of dedicated and hard-working individuals that know how to carry a tune. They perform classical music to gospel with perfection. The University Choir performs at Fall and Spring Convocation, Commencement, and CASES. The choir also displays their talents while touring all over the country.

Universal Hip-Hop Preservation Society

The Universal Hip Hop Preservation Society (U.H.H.P.S.) is a "Grass Roots" organization based on the four elements of Hip Hop culture (Djing, Emceeing, Breakin, and Graffiti Art). It is a performance and awareness organization. The U.H.H.P.S. was founded in the Spring of 1999. The founders of this new organization are Richard McNeil II, Omarr Jacobs, Montell Bannerman, and Mayvetta Graham. The organization was founded to help preserve Hip-Hop music & culture. The organization is involved in many endeavors such as: "The Cypher Soundz", Big Brother/Sister program, Hip-Hop History clinic, "Da Battle and many others.

Religious Life

Shaw University is committed to its tradition as a Christian institution. It promotes interaction with all faiths and respects the diversity of religions among members of the Shaw Family.

Under the leadership of the Dean of the Chapel, the University seeks to promote its motto: “Pro Christo et Humanitate” (For Christ and Humanity), offering its students the opportunity to grow spiritually and to serve humankind.

Over the years, the Religious Life of Shaw University has served as an undeniable facet of the campus life. It is a major topic of conversation from ethics and morals in the classroom, to Biblical discussions in residence halls.

In Memoriam

In Memoriam

Gone, But Not Forgotten

Our Father knows what's best for us,
So why should we complain-
We always want the sunshine,
But He knows there must be rain,
We love the sound of laughter
And the merriment of cheer,
But our hearts would lose their tenderness
If we never shed a tear...
Our Father tests us often
With suffering and with sorrow,
He tests us, not to punish us,
But to help us meet tomorrow...
For growing trees are strengthened
When they withstand the storm,
And the sharp cut of chisel
Gives the marble grace and form...

God never hurts us needlessly,
And he never wastes our pain,
For every loss He sends to us
Is followed by rich gain...
And when we count the blessings
That God has so freely sent,
We will find no cause for murmuring
And no time to lament...
For Our Father loves His children
And to Him all things are plain
So He never sends us pleasure
When the soul's deep need is pain...
So whenever we are troubled,
And when everything goes wrong,
It is just God working in us, to make
Our spirit strong.

New Life

(This poem was written based on Ann's conversation)

God walked with me through the valley
He carried me over the mountain.
He sustained me with His love,
And refilled me from His fountain

God was the source of my strength
To endure the battle that I fought.
He gave me the courage to go on
And practice the faith that I was taught.

God took me to higher heights
In the spirit of His love.
Now, I have flown away
Just like the Heavenly dove.

Don't weep too long for me
For my soul has found eternal rest.
I'm in the arms of my loving Jesus-
The One who always knows best.

- The Family

Antwan Eugene Merritt

Portsmouth, Virginia

Loving Antwan

We knew you were special- from Day One.
We didn't know that your's was the song.
That would quickly be sung.

Your talents, your music, your smile, and your love
Were there for all to see.
You were excelling, we were rejoicing,
Great things were to be.

A precious beginning, that soon became an ending,
There is so much to say.
We pray for healing, with the knowledge,
We'll see you in heaven some day.

We love you. The Family

Leslie Maine Mobley
April 11, 1975- December 23, 1998
Chicago, Illinois

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Dr. Arlease Gertrude Salley
September 28, 1946- August 18, 1999

When Tomorrow Starts Without me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand that an angel came
And called my name and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Dear Marvin.

M- is for the Marvin-lous times we had together
A- Always there when I need you
R- Realizing what we meant to each other
V- The Vibrant spunk you added to my life
I- The Internal love that we shared
N- Never giving up on me and always being there

Remembering the times that we shared together
Hoping our love would last forever
You are my star that shined ever so bright
The joy you brought me truly felt right
Marvin, you were sent by the good Lord to me
But just when we got close, the Lord set you free
He knew I was strong as you were getting weak
Giving me the will and the nerve to speak
And as I speak my heart will say
Dear Heavenly Father, Marvin, is all yours
Take him, dress him, and let him through your doors.
For he is the Angel that has completed his task.
On, Dear God, your eternal love he cannot pass
Sleep on, Marvin, as your journey is done
God placed his arms around you so you can not run
I love you dearly but God loves you best
So put your troubles down for you are truly blessed

Love Always,

Husband/Father

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working arms to rest
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the BEST

EDITOR'S NOTE

Experience is the best teacher.
Working on the yearbook has truly been an experience.

The goal for the 1999-2000 Yearbook was to capture the essence of our great university. Student Life, Academics, Religious Life, Organizations and Clubs or Sports, this yearbook is enriched with YOU.

Administrators, Faculty, Staff and Students served as vital instruments in our ability to capture Shaw University in its' entirety. So, I must thank you. However, without a yearbook staff whose main traits are dedication and hard work, this publication would not have been possible.

Within these pages you will find our country's future, our university's greatness, and each person's uniqueness.

Taking on a task such as the 1999-2000 Yearbook took a lot of courage and determination, but the end result made it all worthwhile. Shaw University is Unforgettable, Opportunities are Unattainable

Angel S. WILLIAMS

Congratulations Angel!

What a wonderful example of hard work and perseverance!
How you have managed a family, a full-time job at Fairview Elementary School and completed your degree is beyond us.
We are really proud of you and wish you the best with all future endeavors.

BAHEERAH H. HAMEED

Congratulations Baheerah,

You are a beautiful young lady with great insight. We are proud of the person you have become over the years and the many achievements you have accomplished. You will always be an important part of our past, present, and future. You're an inspiration to many and the joy of our lives. Your desired images, that were in your head, have become a reality. You've explored your full potential, achieved another goal, and laid the foundation for a brighter tomorrow.

May Allah continue to bless you as you grow in knowledge and wisdom.

Your loving parents,
Phinezy & Nellie

Baheerah,

The doors to success were swinging open for you long ago. You've conquered many obstacles, and took on many challenges. You worked hard to fulfill your potential, in pursuit of making your dreams come true. Intellectualism, determination, and knowledge have lead you to another achievement, to add on to the many others.

We are proud of you. Continue to be successful throughout the coming years.

Congratulations,
Patricia, Philomena, and Denise

Congrats,

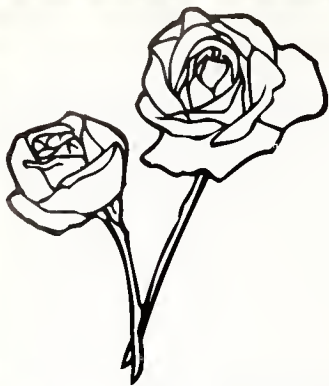

It's a new year, new century, and another new achievement. The road you chose took you in the right direction. Continue to travel your everlasting journey on the road to success.

Calvin, Phinezy, and Seifuddin

Aunt Baheerah,

Congratulations on your great success. No one deserves it more than you.

Ayesha and Aasiya

To Cherie:

From day one, I watched you grow like a tree,
branches sprouting everywhere and so perfect
are the leaves.

I always knew you were special and you've proven that to me!

How Blessed I am, to be the roots of that tree,
I named Cherie!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank God for all the blessings that he has bestowed upon me. I also want to thank all of my family members and friends who have supported me throughout all of my endeavors and encouraged me along the way.

Finally, many people will say what they really want out of life, but very few will actually strive to accomplish what they set out to do. If you have a dream go for it and let no one deter you from accomplishing it.

To Tahara and Mason Davis:
Babies, thank you for the long days and nights
I stayed away and studied. Thank you both for the love and patience you gave me during these last three years. I know it was hard for you both to understand me at times; so, I dedicate this degree to my living angels, for God gave me a star that has two shining points, and they are Tahara and Mason.

Love Mama!

The Path We Chose To Walk...

From the start, someone believed you could accomplish great things.

It was new in the beginning, but determination kept you going.

When there were trials and tribulations, there was faith and determination to keep you strolling along. Through it all, we still walked the path.

Of course there was work to be done. This is Shaw U! that great HBCU! What else would you expect? Through difficult classes, and exams there to understand and lend a helping hand was a friend, a study group or an instructor. We may have started out timid or shy and finished outspoken always having a reply.

We leave our mark, however it may be, it's still you and me.

Remember that friend you met along the way, Remember the fun that made you want to stay. Attain all you have learned and keep it to your dying day. What ever happens you can always say I walked that path I chose that day.

Congratulations Graduates!
